

Erika Turner Named CFO of Superior Industries

VAN NUYS, CALIFORNIA -- February 25, 2008 -- Superior Industries International, Inc. (NYSE:SUP) announced today that Erika H. Turner has been named Chief Financial Officer.

"With her impressive record of accomplishment, high energy, and commitment to success, Erika Turner rounds out the revamped and expanded senior management team we have assembled at Superior with the skills to extend the operational gains we already have achieved and position the company for long-term growth and profitability. Erika has many years of directly relevant, high-level financial management experience in the automotive and other global manufacturing industries, and we expect her to make a real difference in her critical role at our company," said Chairman, President and CEO Steven Borick.

Prior to joining Superior, Turner was Chief Financial Officer/VP Finance since 2004 at Monogram Systems, Carson, California, a leading supplier of cabin systems and equipment to the global aerospace industry. Earlier, she served as CFO of the Storage Solutions Group at Quantum Corporation, Irvine, California. From 2000 to 2003, Turner was Controller of Rockwell Collins Passenger Systems, Pomona, California, following several years as Division Chief Financial Officer at Arvin Meritor (formerly Rockwell Automotive) in Frankfurt, Germany. She also served as Chief Financial Officer at the Autospecialty division of TRW, Carson, California.

Ms. Turner began her career as Manager, Audit and Special Services at Deloitte & Touche, Los Angeles, in 1979. A Certified Public Accountant, Turner also received an MBA from USC in 1979.
