

Superior Industries International, Inc. Receives NYSE Continued Listing Standards Notice

SOUTHFIELD, MICHIGAN – June 5, 2025 – Superior Industries International, Inc. (“Superior” or the “Company”) (NYSE:SUP), one of the world’s leading aluminum wheel suppliers, today announced that on June 2, 2025, it received written notice (the “Notice”) from the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) of non-compliance with Section 802.01B of NYSE Listed Company Manual (the “Manual”), which requires an average global market capitalization of not less than $50 million over a consecutive 30-trading day period and stockholders’ equity of not less than $50 million. As set forth in the Notice, as of May 30, 2025, the Company’s 30-trading day average market capitalization was approximately $45.9 million, and the Company’s last reported stockholders’ deficit, as of March 31, 2025, was approximately $(288.7) million.

In accordance with applicable NYSE procedures, within 45 days from receipt of the Notice, the Company must submit to NYSE a business plan that demonstrates compliance with Section 802.01B of the Manual within 18 months of receipt of the Notice. The Listing Operations Committee of NYSE will review the business plan and will either accept the plan, at which time the Company will be subject to ongoing quarterly monitoring for compliance with the business plan, or reject it, at which time the Company will be subject to suspension and delisting proceedings. The Company expects to timely submit such a business plan to NYSE.

Pursuant to NYSE rules, the Company’s common stock will continue to be listed and traded on NYSE during the cure periods outlined above, subject to the Company’s compliance with other NYSE continued listing requirements. The current noncompliance with the standards described above does not affect the Company’s ongoing business operations or its reporting requirements with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”).
