LEADING PROXY ADVISORY FIRM EGAN-JONES JOINS ISS AND GLASS LEWIS IN RECOMMENDING THAT SUPERIOR INDUSTRIES SHAREHOLDERS VOTE THE WHITE PROXY CARD FOR ALL OF SUPERIOR'S DIRECTOR NOMINEES

All Three Leading Independent Proxy Advisory Firms Now Recommend That Shareholders Vote FOR ALL Superior's Board Nominees

SOUTHFIELD, MICHIGAN – April 30, 2015 – Superior Industries International, Inc. (NYSE:SUP), the largest manufacturer of aluminum wheels for passenger cars and light-duty vehicles in North America, today announced that Egan-Jones, a leading independent proxy advisory firm, has recommended to its clients that Superior shareholders vote the WHITE proxy card FOR ALL seven of Superior's director nominees – Margaret S. Dano, Jack A. Hockema, Paul J. Humphries, James S. McElya, Timothy C. McQuay, Donald J. Stebbins and Francisco S. Uranga – standing for election at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on May 5, 2015. Egan-Jones' clients include institutional investors, mutual funds, pension funds and other fiduciaries. The Egan-Jones recommendation follows the recommendations issued earlier by ISS Proxy Advisory Services and Glass, Lewis & Co., LLC, both of which also recommended that Superior shareholders vote the WHITE proxy card FOR ALL seven of the director nominees recommended by the Superior Board. As previously announced, GAMCO Asset Management Inc. (GAMCO) is waging a proxy contest to elect its own director candidates to the Superior Board, despite the failure of similar attempts in 2013 and 2014.

In recommending that Superior shareholders vote the WHITE proxy card FOR ALL seven of the highly qualified and experienced director-nominees recommended by the Superior Board, Egan-Jones noted the following:

“We believe it is in the best interest of Shareholders to vote the management white proxy form. We do not believe that the election of the GAMCO nominees to be necessary or in the best interest of stockholders. We believe that it is in the best interest of shareholders that the time and resources of the company's Board and Executives be focused on growing shareholder value, not another proxy contest.”

Egan-Jones based its recommendation on the following factors:

- its belief that “the Company has instituted significant, very promising changes, in particular its recent appointment of new, highly qualified CEO Don Stebbins, as well as declassification of its Board, the addition of new directors, and separation of the roles of CEO and Chairman as well as significant operational changes. We strongly believe that Mr. Stebbins and the Board should be permitted to execute their current plans”;

- its belief that “the dissidents have failed to make a persuasive case that their joining the Board would work toward maximizing shareholder value;” and
- its concern that the election of the dissidents’ slate to the Board of Directors would not work to the benefit of all shareholders.

Commenting on the Egan-Jones report, Superior issued the following statement: “We are very pleased that ISS, Glass Lewis and Egan-Jones, the three leading independent, third-party proxy advisory firms, have carefully reviewed the voting alternatives and all three have recommended that shareholders should vote for all seven of Superior’s director nominees on the WHITE proxy card. As we have stated consistently, we do not believe that any of GAMCO’s nominees can be said to have experience comparable to that of any of the three highly qualified and very experienced members of the Superior Board that GAMCO is seeking to replace. As was the case with GAMCO’s previous two unsuccessful proxy contests against Superior, not one of GAMCO’s nominees has any executive-level manufacturing, automotive industry, supply chain management, global markets or global operations experience, and we do not believe that any of GAMCO’s nominees would bring to Superior’s Board any relevant insights, perspectives, skills or competencies not already present among the current members of the Superior Board. In addition, none of GAMCO’s nominees have any experience navigating a company the size and global reach of Superior through the complex, dynamic and highly competitive global business environment in which we operate.”

Superior shareholders are reminded that their vote is extremely important, no matter how many or how few shares they own. Superior urges shareholders to vote FOR ALL seven of Superior’s director nominees – Margaret S. Dano, Jack A. Hockema, Paul J. Humphries, James S. McElya, Timothy C. McQuay, Donald J. Stebbins and Francisco S. Uranga – on the WHITE proxy card today.

Shareholders may vote by returning the WHITE proxy card or by phone or Internet by following the instructions on the WHITE proxy card they have received. Shareholders are urged to discard any blue proxy card or voting instruction card they may have received from GAMCO. Even a WITHHOLD vote with respect to GAMCO’s nominees on its blue proxy card will cancel any proxy previously given to Superior. If a shareholder previously signed a blue proxy card sent by GAMCO, that proxy card can be revoked by voting a new WHITE proxy card for the Board’s recommended nominees. Only the latest-dated proxy will count.

Superior is being advised in connection with the proxy contest by Winston & Strawn, LLP and Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP. Mackenzie Partners, Inc. is serving as Superior’s proxy solicitor.

TIME IS SHORT!
PLEASE VOTE THE WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY!
